JAVITS CONVENTION CENTER

Javits Center has moved away from forms. Jake ordering portal has been created for all exhibitors.

Jake is the Javits Center's new online ordering portal that allows exhibitors to easily order all products and services offered at the convention center on Manhattan's West Side.

This online portal was developed specifically to meet the needs of our customers, making sure that your visit is easier than ever before. With a user-friendly shopping cart experience, your exhibitors can order electrical, cleaning and technology services among other items—all from their mobile device or computer.

Listed below are websites Exhibitors can use:
